

Farris Heritage Trust - Heritage Name Recognition Benefit

Purpose

The Heritage Name Benefit honors the Grantor's family lineage and encourages the continuation of traditional family names across generations.

Eligible Names

A one-time benefit may be available when a descendant names a newborn child using one of the following names as either a first or middle name:

- Jack
 - Ruth
 - Jane
 - Ronald
 - Lafe
-

Benefit Amount

Eligible descendants may receive a one-time recognition benefit.

The amount is indexed periodically to reflect inflation.

Eligibility Requirements

- The claimant must be a descendant of the Grantor or a designated beneficiary.
 - The child's name must appear on the official birth certificate.
 - The claim must be submitted within two years of the child's birth.
-

Required Documentation

Applicants must provide:

- Certified copy of the birth certificate
 - Completed Trust claim form
-

Payment

The benefit is payable once per eligible child after verification by the Trustee.

Program Purpose

This program exists to:

- honor the family heritage
 - preserve historical continuity
 - celebrate the legacy of the Grantor's family
-

Application

Claims must be submitted during the annual claim period using the official Trust claim form.
